In a competitive job market, the advantages of a college degree become even more apparent.

To help you reach your goal of planning your graduation and adding your degree to your professional resume, we'd like to introduce you to Benedictine University's Personal Economic Recovery Plan:

Students enrolling in AABA, BAM, BAOL, or MBA learning team starting in January or February 2010 will earn their first course tuition-free!****

"Right now, three-quarters of the fastest-growing occupations in the U.S. require more than a high school diploma. In a global economy... a good education is no longer just a pathway to opportunity- it is a prerequisite." - President Barack Obama, address to Congress and the nation Feb. 24, 2009.

Now, with increased federal funding for education available through the economic recovery plan, our President has challenged every American "to commit to at least one year of higher education or career training:"

"This country needs and values the talents of every American. That is why we will provide the support necessary for you to complete college and meet a new goal: By 2020, America will once again have the highest proportion of college graduates in the world."

- Attend class just one night a week in Naperville, Bellwood, Tinley Park, Bolingbrook
- Graduate in about two years depending on experience
- Take one course at a time
- Earn your degree affordably with financial aid to those who qualify
- Weekly study team to assist in assignment completion - work smarter, not harder!
